Kolar Deputy Commissioner's Letter No $\frac{533}{1126}$ of 20th March, 1905 submitting proceedings in re the petition of Ramachandra Rao appealing against the District order transferring the shamshuk of Gandlachint and other villages of Bidlaghatta taluk, to one Hanjundappa.

The shamshuk of all the disputed villages except Gandichint stood in the register of 1854 in the name of the petitioners Ramachandra Rao and his father; the name of Sreenivasa Rao, — Hanumantha Rao, Shama Rao, and Ramachandra Rao being however also entered therein as Hissedars.

Hanumantha Rao, one of the hissedars, having desired that the shamshuk of the villages that came to his share, should be ~~inter~~ transferred to his name.

and one Ristnappa recognized as his agent, the Deputy Commr. ordered the necessary change in the register in No. 12 208 of 13-3-88.
Hanumantha Rao's Agent ~~Rao~~ Ristnappa died and his son Subbarayappa was looking after the duties of the shanbhaga, which is however repudiated by Hanu-mantha Rao on the ground that he did not appoint Subbarayappa as his agent. Subbarayappa resigned on the ground of ~~non-~~ nonpayment of dues to him. Hanu-mantha Rao being too old to manage the business by himself desired both in his petition to the Amildar and in his deposition before him that officer that one Anamadappa Hanjurappa, who he asserts is the son of his grandfather's brother and is therefore a ^{son} ~~son~~, should be recognized as the registered shanbhaga of certain of his villages. In his deposition Hanumantha Rao states that the shanbhaga of the 11 villages noted in the margin have been

1. Gan. Kachinte,
 2. Ahagolehali ✓
 3. Bando hali
 4. Chingavara hali ✓
 5. Kisthakura ✓

entered against his name in the Survey settlement that Nos. 1, 2, & 3 are independent ^{charges} villages, Nos. 4 & 5 are included in the charge of Achint Betta and is therefore under a separate shanbhage. No. 6 is included in Machata village, Nos. 7, 8 & 9 are all included in one charge and Nos. 10 & 11 are independent ^{charges} villages; that for (5, 7, & 8) and 10 & 11 should be transferred to Hanumantha name and that for 1, 2, & 3 he would look after himself. He also states that he has not to say Subbaragappa that he did not appoint him as his agent.

Subbaragappa, who was also examined by the Amildar states that he must be paid for the work done.

The Amildar in reporting the matter for the Sec. Comptroller's orders also stated that Hanumantha Rao was to aid to manage the affairs of the villages which he had reserved for himself.

The Sec. Comptroller thereupon asked the Amildar to submit copy of the order nominating Hanumantha Rao as the shanbhage of these villages, with a view to find out if there were any other claimants for the same besides Hanumantha Rao.

On the submission of copy of the extract of Chandhoke register the Deputy Commissioner, as it appeared to him there were other claimants for the Chandhoke, ordered on 7-4-92 that ^aEsthagar (Reclamation) notice should be issued inviting persons who may be interested to show cause why the grant of Chandhoke to Rao should not be granted. The Esthagar notice, as ordered above, was issued on 13-5-92 ordering the appearance of claimants before the Amildar, within 6 months time. In the mean time Chandhoke Rao submitted in his petition 8122 (June '92) that there was no reason to issue the notice as no waradars had any right to interfere in the matter; and on its rejection by the General Asst. Commr. he addressed another to the Dy. Commr. stating that the Chandhoke of these villages had been assigned to him by a Decree passed by the Land Revenue D. Court.

The notice was however served upon one Lutchman Rao (Chandhoke Rao's brother) and

The Sect is can do, and seem to have been enjoined into at all by the S^t Court because he did not urge his claims within six months from the publication of a notice. Before the matter is finally brought on for the decision of S^t Court it seems desirable that the S^t Court should ascertain the nature of the claim now set up by the Sect and submit a report with his own opinion about it.

Received

General No. 1005
No. 418

Enclosure No. 1 file

Being too old to do the duties, he requested that the Shambhog might be transferred to his cousin Nampundappa.
This request was granted - vide his orders of 5-1-93 & 8-7-93. (Papers nos. 12 & 8 of first marked)

Petitioner Ramachandra Rao appealed against this order on the ground that Nampundappa has no right in the office and that he is the proper Hakdar, as Hannamanta Rao has no male issue. The genealogical tree produced by him is filed in paper no. 17 of the file already referred to.

Hannamanta Rao now states that as Nampundappa failed to give him a license as promised when the 'hak' was transferred to his name, the Shamb-hog may either be re-transferred to him or registered in the name of his daughter's son - (vide his statement of 9-3-96 - paper no. 22.)

The Petitioner Ramachandra Rao states that if the rules allow, the Brihannand may be merged in the name of Hannamanta Rao's daughter's son, or the it may be allowed to stand in Hannamanta Rao's name.
(vide paper no. 11 of the first file) Nampundappa does not want to this. Submitted for order.

orders on the petition of Siddaghatta Ramachennara Row, retired Revenue Head Record-keeper, Kolar District, ~ regarding the Shaulkhi of Gaudla Siddaghatta Taluk, I have the honor to state that Hanumantha Row, late Shaulkhi of the villages in question, the Peinim and certain others are reported to be concerned.

2. At the request of the said Hanumantha Row, the Shaulkhi of these villages which had fallen to his share at a partition of property between himself and his Cofaceenore was transferred to his distant cousin one Tynjundiah as per this office order noted in the margin after the publication of a notice inviting claimants who had any objections to the transfer being effected.

3. The Personer who evidently kept silent at the time has since come forward and he alleges that he has a preferential claim to the office.

4. Hanumanta Rao has no male issue but he has a daughter's son who is a minor and the Personer has no objection to the latter being appointed in preference to Tynjundiah.

5. Under these circumstances, it seems unnecessary to disturb the present arrangement and I
